Eczema!

For the benefit of suffering humanity, and in grateful gratitude at the wonderful results I deem it only my duty to give this unqualified testimony in favor of Swift's Eczema. My wife has been afflicted with Eczema of Salt Rheum from her infancy. It increased in intensity with each succeeding spring, and being somewhat skilled in medicine myself, I tried every remedy I could think of for years—Sarsaparilla, compound with every form of Potash, and hundreds of other remedies, lotions and alkalis of every known kind, but they all gave only temporary relief. During the spring of 1884 her lower extremities became so inflamed and sore that she was obliged to wear them constantly covered with a covering of "Vaseline's Eczema" ointment, wet and allowed to dry on. Among other things she was afflicted with a periodical nervous headache, occurring regularly every seven days, sometimes followed by an intermittent fever for weeks at a time, so that her life became a burden to her.

This spring I determined she should take Dr. J. C. Swift's Eczema. I followed the directions in regard to dose, etc. This was about seven weeks ago. After taking the first large bottle the disease seemed to increase; the burning, itching and inflammation became unbearable. She, however, persevered in the use of the medicine. After taking the second bottle the inflammation began to subside. After the third bottle the inflammation disappeared, and a red spot dried up and turned white and scaly, and finally she washed them off in an impenetrable white powder resembling pure salt. She is now taking the sixth bottle, three tablespoons four times daily. Every appearance of the disease has gone, and her skin is becoming soft, white and smooth again, and what is more, her periodical headaches have disappeared and she is now, at 35 years of age, enjoying the only good health she has known for upwards of 40 years. No wonder she declares with emphasis that every bottle of Dr. J. C. Swift's Eczema is worth a thousand times its weight in gold.

Any further information concerning her case will be cheerfully given by herself at her residence, 125 Mullett street, or by me J. H. F. BRADLEY, at Glenwood st.
Cleveland, Mich., May 16, 1885.

BEAVER.

Interesting Proceedings in the Second District.

The following was received yesterday from Beaver. It tells its own brief story:

The deputy marshal who went forth with the open venire soon scooped in from the streets of Beaver eight men to fill the panel of the grand jury. The questionings of the prosecutor were not tedious when he became aware of the complexion of the jurors, and the Judge's charge to the jury was very mild when compared with former charges.

The Beaver jail is filled with men accused of murder, rape and larceny, and the jury must be for attending to these cases, the witnesses in town being Territorial. No witnesses have been subpoenaed yet before the Grand Jury on United States cases. The town is quiet.

The following came by mail last evening:

BEAVER, September 8, 1885.

To the Editor of THE HERALD:

Yesterday morning, in this city, the Second Judicial District Court, of this Territory, opened for its regular September term. His Honor, J. S. Bore-man, presided, and E. B. Critchlow, Esq., appeared as Assistant United States District Attorney.

Thirty names had been drawn, from which to select a grand jury. Of these but twenty-seven responded, and these, through the rigid anti-Mormon questions of Mr. Critchlow, were again thinned down to seven individuals, who were finally accepted as satisfactory grand jurors. There being no more names in the box the court felt compelled to issue an open venire for twenty-seven additional persons, from which to select the remaining eight jurors. Of the twenty-seven but six were deemed suitable, and yet another "special" venire was ordered issued for another batch. The final result was the impaneling of the following named individuals as a grand jury for this district for the present term: George F. Halterman, Fred Joy, S. J.
Pollock, H. C. Rich, Wm. Maloney, Charles Laver, Henry Collins, James A.
Lindsay, Charles Van Fleet, David Pollock, Thomas E. Stinson, John Fotheringham, D. H. Thompson, Wm. Myers Asabel Bennett. The court appointed J. R. Lindsay to act as foreman and after delivering one of the mildest of charges to the new grand jury, dismissed it to its rooms.

A busy term is anticipated not alone from the fact that our county jail has quite a number of tenants; alleged violators of the ordinary criminal laws of the Territory who are awaiting the trial of the grand jury; but it is asserted that a lively campaign will be opened against those who have honored their own convictions by entering into polygamic practices.

Some half-dozen of our citizens were indicted by the previous Grand Jury for alleged unlawful cohabitation and their individual trials are all set for this term. What the result of these trials will be it is difficult to predict. Cases of the same kind, can hardly be left to conjecture. Packed juries can bring but one sure result and that is too obvious to mention.

On this it is said that Professor Rein-hard Maier of the Beaver Central school, has purchased a one-half interest in the Southern Utah, and that he assumes full editorial control this week.
Daniel Tyler, of "Battlefield History" fame, is the retiring editor, and it is almost needless to say that he goes out with the best wishes of all.

Respectfully,
S. J. CRITCHLOW.

PROVO POINTS.

SUPERINTENDENT SHARP spent the day here.

S. S. JONES took a run up to Mill Fork yesterday.

THE COUNTY will sink an artesian well at the courthouse in the near future.

LARGE QUANTITIES of fruit are shipped from points in this country to Colorado daily.

A NEW drug store will be opened here during the coming week, Mr. Fordenski, of Springfield, is the proprietor.

A LARGE audience greeted Kate Castleton at the Opera House last night. "For goodness sake don't say I told you," was sung by request, and was well received. Everybody laughed heartily, and the recalls were frequent, but it was the opinion generally that Crazy Patch was not what was expected it would be.

MISS ANNIE JONES has gone to Logan.
The lucky fellow is George Atkins, Jr., of Tooele. The ceremony will be performed in Logan Temple to-day. We wish the young couple every joy that the bridal ring and wreath enclose, and hope that their voyage upon the sea of matrimony will be a pleasant one; that their bark may surmount every wave, overcome every obstacle and sail into harbor on the other side as safely and as happily as it leaves us to-day.

THE FACTORY is about the busiest place in town. They are working a full force and turning out large quantities of a superior article of woolen goods of every description. We understand that orders are received almost daily from Idaho and Montana and that efforts will shortly be made to introduce these goods into Colorado and even in the east. We congratulate Mr. Smoot for his able management of the institution and we hope the people of Utah will appreciate his efforts in the interests of home manufacture.
